don't judge this "little paperback" by its outer appearance - it is a SUPERB, accurate-ingredients, accessible and deliciously authentic collection of GREAT recipes! This is what my neighbors in Bavaria/Franconia prepared for their own families, and this book includes "how" they prepared such wonderful meals and describes the "German" cooking art that they shared with this cuisine with me in their own kitchens. This book lets me fully enjoy all that again.

The delicious beer brisket is fantastic. I have seen several other recipes I want to try. If you are looking for great German cooking I would suggest you try this cookbook. Thank you and enjoy your meal and enjoy your day.

Not what I expected. Wanted authentic from scratch recipes.

In two words, extremely disappointing. The English is fractured, the recipes are trite and very repetitive apples and cabbage in almost every dish.

Good that i didn't had to pay anything for this - this cookbook is just not right. The pictures of the food look like Germans would eat any kind of crap and the food on the pictures are not professional made. Me as a German feel actually insulted that someone sells this as a German cookbook.
