Evil Under The Sun

Synopsis

Read by David Suchet, the voice of Hercule Poirot. One of Agatha Christie's most loved mysteries, Evil Under the Sun remains one of her best and most delightfully cryptic murder mysteries ever. It was not unusual to find the beautiful bronzed body of the sun-loving Arlena Stuart stretched out on a beach, face down. Only, on this occasion, there was no sun... she had been strangled. Ever since Arlena's arrival at the resort, Hercule Poirot had detected sexual tension in the seaside air. But could this apparent 'crime of passion' have been something more evil and premeditated altogether?

"You can't go wrong with this one" Books "She springs her secret like a land mine" Times Literary Supplement

Agatha Christie was born in Torquay in 1890 and became, quite simply, the best-selling novelist in history. Her first novel, The Mysterious Affair at Styles, written towards the end of the First World War, introduced us to Hercule Poirot, who was to become the most popular detective in crime fiction since Sherlock Holmes. She is known throughout the world as the Queen of Crime. Her books have sold over a billion copies in the English language and another billion in 44 foreign languages. She is the author of 80 crime novels and short story collections, 19 plays, and six novels under the name of Mary Westmacott.

The murder part of any Agatha Christie novel is very sad, but that aside, I think this is one of Christie's best. I bought the audiobook, and David Suchet (who played Poirot in the most recent series) is a wonderful narrator, too.

Great book! Agatha Christie is amazing!

It was exactly what I wanted and in excellent shape. When the product meets your expectations, there's not a lot to say, but apparently I'm supposed to use more words, so here they are.

Agatha Christie is Agatha Christie and she is a delight to read, not only for her puzzles, but more important is her writing style and ruminations about life, psychology and how to understand people. Hence examples such as this: “You do not comprehend, Captain Marshall. There is no such thing as a plain fact of murder. Murder springs, nine times out of ten, out of the character and circumstances of the murdered person. Because the victim was the kind of person he or she was, therefore was he or she murdered! Until we can understand fully and completely exactly what kind of a person Arlena Marshall was, we shall not be able to see exactly the kind of person who murdered her. From that springs the necessity of our questions.” And to have such read by David Suchet is icing on the cake.
