"Yee draws in readers through her bright watercolor and soft pastel paintings of luscious tropical settings, soft baby sea turtles' eyes, and treacherous endangering animal faces. Young readers will enjoy this adventurous tale about Hawaii's sea turtles." ~From the National Council of Teachers of English's Adventuring With Books, 12th Edition by Kathryn Mitchell Pierce (Ed.).

Read the description and sample pages carefully. Not the sweet little story of a cute little turtle having a fun day swimming in the ocean. I returned it, because it wasn't what I was looking for to read to my baby.

Super book, educational, purchased for kindergarten class. Super illustrations.

Pretty pictures but story was not as good. Not really what I was hoping for my preschool class.

Cute, grand kid likes it. Of course he would like anything I read to him including the adds out of the sunday paper. ;-)

Was not that crazy about the story line, but maybe the child I gave it to will enjoy it better than me.....

Beautifully illustrated, real animals and animal behavior, easy to identify with Baby Honu.

Can't wait to read this to my baby girl!

I wanted to give my grandson a book from the Hawaiian culture to expand his world. As a new grandmother, who was born in Hawaii, I wanted to share some of my culture with him. This seems the way to accomplish this.
