Marisa Miller has the best cleavage of any SI supermodel since Stacey Williams. All 12 pictures are top notch. She should do a photo spread in Penthouse or Playboy. I am craving a shot of her in her birthday suite.

Marisa is very unique in the modeling profession. A curvy blond with the all American girl next door look. To see a woman with a large natural bust anywhere in modeling is unusual and in contrast with the highly overrated "Kate Moss" type look where the figure is like a stick and no different than a young boy's. Her face is not average bony "elegant" high fashion looking face either, such as those shown on the cover of Vouge Magazine. Her face and body are refreshing in comparison. This sharp contrast with the high fashion look is refreshing and was overdue. Anyone who bucks convention will take some shots and she has not been immune with many looking down their high fashion noses and saying she just doesn't "have the look." I for one am glad she doesn't. Her personality is refreshing as well. She is not egotistical or cold, rather is humble and warm. She does not think modeling is important in the overall scheme of things. She plans an entirely different career when her modeling days are finished. I don't recall the last time Sports Illustrated published a calendar featuring just one model. I don't think it has happened very often. This is a very good representation of her great Sports Illustrated work taken over an 8 year period.

Don't let the cover fool you, because the content of the calendar justifies the claim made in the title. Each month has a large main picture and is supplemented with a smaller one on a different part of the page. A door poster calendar is included as an added bonus.

What can you say bad about Marisa Miller, truly a dish. Who doesn't want a thin woman with huge breasts, and she is blonde. SI put together a bestof Ms. Miller and it works for the most part. However, the calendar is extremely small. It should have been longer and larger.

Not a good cover unless you are a guy and are looking foryou know. This woman never wears clothes and only does swim suit modeling or lingerie. So, anyone who calls her a supermodel is just plain wrong. She is not a typical example of your really good models. She must be approaching her 40th bday and still wears skirts up to there. Plus, she is so, so, so overexposed, in more ways than one. She has a very ambitious publicist, that's for sure. Every time you turn around, there she is. BORING! Buy an S.I. calendar with a girl with class AND sex appeal on it. There are tons of S.I. girls who have it!
