Redemption (The Marked Series Book 3)

Synopsis

My chest fills and deflates rapidly—too rapidly—and a hazy darkness begins to creep around my vision. My hands begin to lift, but I don't want to look. I really, really don't want to look, because if I do, then there is no more denying. There is no more pretending what happened didn't happen. Hanna Harper did the only thing she could do—she stabbed Jared, the love of her life, through the heart to stop the apocalypse. But she was too late. The Fallen were released, and now that Jared has ascended, they intend on using his blood to complete their plan to end the world. With The Order now divided, Hanna and her friends must find a way to help Jared become The Savior they believe he is. But when a Guardian who's always viewed Jared as the enemy throws him in the church dungeon at The Compound, all may be lost. Will Hanna be able to rescue Jared and convince him he's not the monster he believes himself to be, or will he give into darkness and despair and truly become The Destroyer?

Customer Reviews

I love happy endings even better, I am so happy that Will got his happiness after all.. I really liked Will and Hanna together but of course nothing is as it seems.. But the whole series was just totally awesome but most of all the ending was a big surprise..

Loved the first book, liked the second and this last book in the series was okay. There was more telling of the story than I would have liked. More description would make this last book better. Disappointed in the ending but see why some would like the ending.

Recommend reading if u read the first 2 books. This one ends the trilogy very well and it was a good read. Action in almost every page of this book and I don't know how they did it. A little too fast paced for my liking but it's also not a boring moment because of that. Although the negativity of both main characters gets pretty annoying

SO NOTHING. HAD A GREAT STORY LINE AND NOTHING WAS MADE FROM IT. WOULD LIKE TO SEE ANOTHER WRITER TAKE THE THEME AND WRITE A GREAT NOVEL. WON'T BE BUYING THIS PERSONS BOOKS.

Omg speachless!!!! I loved it you are a mastermind... I need more.....like so so much more i couldnt put this one down n now im like woe

Loved the characters, but she should end up with the other guy. You can't put in a love triangle with a bad boy and now play it out. I love will and Hanna together, and to tease it by having them kiss so often just makes you more disappointed in the end.

When I first purchased it I was unable to stop but I had to before I would have finished it in less than a week (it is that good). I love it and I am ready for the next one.

Thank you T.L. McDonald for writing it and thank you to Arren McDonald for letting me know where to find it. Can't wait to read more.
