What You'll Learn

Thirty 30-minute lessons totaling 15 hours of spoken Italian language learning, plus one hour of Reading Lessons. Builds upon skills taught in Pimsleur's Italian Levels 1-3. You'll be speaking and understanding Italian with near-fluency and with a broad range of conversational skills. In Level 4 the pace and conversation moves more rapidly, accelerating exposure to new vocabulary and structures, and approaching native speed and comprehension. You'll learn to speak about your profession, needs, likes and dislikes, and to create complex sentences discussing the past, present and future.

A few of the topics included in Italian Level 4:

- Accommodations: In addition to learning about accommodation options, you'll inquire about amenities and local activities and events, get help with luggage, and ask about restaurant options and schedules.
- Activities: biking, horseback riding, visiting art galleries, describing abstract qualities, seeing the opera, a theatrical performance or a concert in a variety of venues, sightseeing and touring ruins, churches and palaces. Checking schedules, buying tickets, taking a boat tour, a ferryboat or a cruise, visiting an aquarium or a winery. Attending cultural events and visiting iconic locations.
- Shopping: trying on and buying various items of clothing, asking for colors and sizes, buying gifts and souvenirs, describing qualities of items, finding an ATM, going to an open-air market, haggling over prices, negotiating a discount, discussing shipping options and methods of payment. - Vacationing: visiting an agriturismo and participating in outdoor activities in a variety of locations, going to the beach or swimming pool. Booking in high or low season, dealing with crowds, getting around using a variety of transportation. - Dealing with Unforeseen Events - A trip to the emergency room, describing an accident, getting assistance, losing or forgetting personal items, rescheduling an engagement, finding the way on the map. - Renting or Buying a Home: Learn to talk about desired location and neighborhood, specifying requirements like furnished or unfurnished, describing qualities, views and space requirements. - Family and friends: conversing informally with and about friends and extended family - cousins, aunts, grandparents; meeting distant relatives, specifying relationships, telling family stories, describing family history, and talking informally about everyday situations. - Recipes / Food: Trying new food, discussing preparation, expressing likes and preferences, exploring regional specialties, tasting and describing qualities of wine and food. - Small talk: expressing opinions, wishes, and stating views; asking how someone is feeling, telling stories about people or places. Reading Lessons are included at the end of Lesson 30 and are designed to expand your vocabulary, expose you to a variety of cultural events, and give you practice reading and hearing Italian. The Pimsleur Method We make no secret of what makes this powerful method work so well. Paul Pimsleur spent his career researching and perfecting the precise elements anyone can use to learn a language quickly and easily. Here are a few of his "secrets": The Principle of Anticipation In the nanosecond between a cue and your response, your brain has to work to come up with the right word. Having to do this boosts retention, and cements the word in your mind. Core Vocabulary Words, phrases, and sentences are selected for their usefulness in everyday conversation. We don't overwhelm you with too much, but steadily increase your ability with every lesson. Graduated Interval Recall Reminders of new words and structures come up at the exact interval for maximum retention and storage into your long-term memory. Organic Learning You work on multiple aspects of the language simultaneously. We integrate grammar, vocabulary, rhythm, melody, and intonation into every lesson, which allows you to experience the language as a living, expressive form of human culture. Learning in Context Research has shown that learning new words in context dramatically accelerates your ability to remember. Every scene in every Pimsleur lesson is set inside a conversation between two people. There are no drills, and no memorization necessary for success. Active Participation The Pimsleur Method + active learner participation = success. This method works with every language and every learner who follows it. You gain the power to recall and use what you know, and to add new words easily, exactly as you do in English. The Italian Language Italian is the official language of Italian and Austria and is one of the official languages of Switzerland. It is also an official language in Belgium, Lichtenstein, and Luxembourg. Nearly 100 million people speak Italian as their first language: about 77 million in Italian, 8 million in Austria, and 4.5 million in Switzerland. Tech Talk - CDs are formatted for playing in all CD players, including car players, and users can copy files for use in iTunes or Windows Media Player.

Customer Reviews

Dr. Paul Pimsleur devoted his life to language teaching and testing and was one of the world's leading experts in applied linguistics. After years of experience and research, Dr. Pimsleur developed The Pimsleur Method based on two key principles: the Principle of Anticipation and a scientific principle of memory training that he called "Graduated Interval Recall." This Method has been applied to the many levels and languages of the Pimsleur Programs.

I like this fourth course. It builds on everything that came before. There is more vocabulary per lesson in this latest course, and lots of drill on the passato prossimo, and all those pesky articles, adverbs, etc. I like it. I think one might find it most useful to go through the entire set and then do it again to see if all the info was retained. That is what I have done and it helped to know exactly what I was forgetting so I could drill those areas. I also try to write stories using the vocabulary and grammar so that I use new material in new ways. Mi sono divertita mentre imparare la lingua.

Love these CDs. I use them on my commute to and from work (no time for a class) and feel like I've made steady progress learning just a little at a time, with the regular review built-in. I usually do one 30 minute lesson on the way home and then do it again the next morning on my way to work. Some are more difficult for me, so I've done some lessons more than that. I take weekends off usually, so it takes me more than six weeks to get through a whole set. I really like that while the English instructions are spoken by an English speaker, all of the Italian is by a native Italian speaker, so I can hear the proper accent. I have ordered from this vendor before and as always received the product promptly and well-packaged. No complaints.

Pimsleur has been be a very useful adjunct to learning Italian for me. I have bought several of the levels from Language Secrets. Their prices are much lower than other vendors and items are always shipped in a timely fashion.

This is the absolute best and easiest way to learn a language. I do Rosetta Stone and Yabla and enjoy dual language books but I have by far learned and retained more with Pimsleur. Give it a try you will not be disappointed. I'm 46 years old so don't think because of age you can't learn a language.

If you've done the first 3 levels, this really builds on everything and accelerates the whole process!

I enjoy learning Italian whenever I want to, without being connected to a computer. Thank you for making it so enjoyable.

everything is in good condition I am very satisfied and happy with these CDs Thank You Set arrived in perfect condition and at a great price.
