Internationally acclaimed photographer Sir Simon Marsden was known for his haunting black-and-white infrared photographs of mysterious landscapes and romantic ruins. His work can be found in the J. Paul Getty Museum in California and the Victoria and Albert Museum in London. His books include This Spectred Isle, The Haunted Realm, The Journal of a Ghosthunter, and The Twilight Hour. Marsden died in 2012.

Hauntingly beautiful calendar. I buy this calendar every year as Sir Simon Marsdens photos are mesmerizing. The story behind each photo is just as mysterious and haunting especially because Marsden had personal experiences while visiting these ancient places. I treasured his photographs more today because he is gone. Highly recommend this calendar and all of his books that tell the stories of his journalistic travels to capture ghosts of the past.

The photos in this calendar are ominous yet dignified and beautiful. Each photo contains a caption stating the photo subject's location and background. A great calendar for the price.

This calendar has got to be the best one I have bought in years. It started from January 1st and goes all the way through December 31st! I cannot overstate the necessity of a calendar to have the correct days! I bought one last year and lo and behold, it only lasted for ONE YEAR!!! When I opened it on January 1st of this year, the date was wrong! I have high expectations for this one!

This is my 3rd or 4th Haunted Realm Calendar. I love the pictures, they're always wonderful. And usually the stories are pretty good. However sometimes they're not Haunted anything. It's just a place with a sad or tragic history. I prefer the Haunted Places calendars but they don't seem to release one every year like Haunted Realm.

I love all of Simon Marsden's calendars! I hope these calendars always continue to be published every year.

I really like that this calendar has a short story below each picture. The pictures are great but having that little bit of information makes it more interesting and real.

I love his work, it's so moody. This is the 3rd year I've purchased his calendars. Sad he is no longer with us.
