The Bond With The Beloved: The Inner Relationship Of The Lover And The Beloved

Synopsis

Continues Vaughan-Lee's original work of integrating Sufism, Jungian psychology, and dreamwork, but gives a more detailed description of the inner stages of the mystical path, states of meditation, and how to integrate these inner transformations into everyday life. Different from any other book in its placing of the mystical relationship of lover and beloved at the center of our present global transformation.

Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee is a Sufi teacher. In recent years the focus of his writing and teaching has been on spiritual responsibility in our present time of transition, and the emerging global consciousness of oneness. He has also specialized in the area of dreamwork, integrating the ancient Sufi approach to dreams with the insights of modern psychology.

This book to me sang of the love story between our Beloved lord and longing soul. This is one book that I want to read over and over again for there is so much to learn from this book in terms of inspiration for practicing and honoring our relationship with God. I am not very familiar with Sufism. However, my practices and zazen groups couldn't explain the longing I feel for Lord. A very divine longing, painful as it is, I would not trade it for any pleasure. Reading this book was like instant recognition and acceptance of what was happening in heart already- although unacknowledged. I feel very grateful towards Llewellyn ji for writing this marvelous book.

I had learned about Llewellyn Vaughn-Lee when he did an interview with Oprah Winfrey. During that interview, from the moment he began speaking, I knew he had something to say that would transform my life. I had gone to a book store to purchase one of his books, but I could not find it. I found it online and ordered it. I have been on a spiritual journey for more than 30 years, and nothing has spoken to me like this book. For the serious spiritual seeker, this book is essential. It will take the reader to a depth heretofore unknown. This book is a treasure, and I hope more people discover it.

I'm not even finished with this book yet, but I am savoring every morsel. It speaks to my deepest heart, and I find companionship, resonance, and relief in its pages. Thank you to Llewellyn Vaughn-Lee.

An excellent journey in the Christian and Muslim shared understanding of the mystical yearning for the experience of the Divine and how to get there in beautiful lyrical language. A favorite - given as a love gift to many sincere spiritual seekers.

If you really want to get closer to God, the practice put forth in this book should do it.

Lovely Read

The Inner Map is Revealed. Thank you, thank you, thank you. This book also helps us to pass the inner map to others.

A lyrical harmony to the yearning heart
