The Stampede

Synopsis

Jed Morgan's life changed completely on that beautiful May Sunday. Everything had been almost too good, too perfect. It was all stolen from him by gunfire and the sight of hundreds of terrified cattle pounding from the east and crushing all before them.

Customer Reviews

It was a Very good Western Saga-Lots of Western Heritage Detail-The Big Guns! Romance and the Ending-oops-You will need to read it for yourself! PETIT'YOU Done Good Again! I'll read some more of this Man's Writings! Bound for CLASSIC WESTERN History!

Good book. Entertaining. I like westerns and this kept my interest. This was my second Petit book and I have just opened a third. He now has a fan. Not yet up to the Smoke Jensen, Preacher, or Jess Williams level yet, but still worth reading.

Worth reading, just not this writer's best. The number of 1 shot kills is astounding when the Daltons soaked up 12 + rounds and rode off. Of course some died later.

Too Much Romance And Not Enough Action

Look for good living to win out.

Enjoyed it. Lots of action and interesting characters. Very good lead people. Went along quickly.
Had a difficult time putting it down

Book was really good also.

Great
