The popular illustrator and greeting-card artist brings oddball humor and plenty of sassy energy to Boynton on Board... -- Publishers Weekly

The Boynton Board books are compact treasures just right for little kids. Each book is replete with full-color drawings and comes with a die-cut cover. Also in the series are: BIRTHDAY MONSTERS!, filled with monsters wreaking havoc; BARNYARD DANCE!, a sing-along book set on the farm; and ONE, TWO, THREE!, a counting book presented by various animals.

I bought this book to add some variety to my three year old son's bedtime book collection. At this point, I am looking for books that aren't too long or too complicated before bedtime and will hold and engage my son's interest, hopefully leading to questions for him so he gets used to exploring the world around him. This book fit that bill. It's a handful of pages long with short and simple rhymes so that Mom or Dad doesn't have to spend a half hour reading before bed. The pages have soft pastel colors and cute drawings of all kinds of dinosaurs. The rhymes are short and sweet--most pages focus on opposites: "Dinosaurs weak. Dinosaurs strong." The only reason I deducted a star is because one of those differences set up a really unfair comparison of looks, which is the opposite of how I'm striving to teach my son to be kind. "Dinosaurs cute, and dinosaurs not" with a picture of some "ugly" warty dinosaurs. Thankfully, my 3 year old said immediately, "Those dinosaurs are cute. I love those dinosaurs." I'm not sensitive about a lot of stuff, but I don't want my son to ever feel bad if he grows up to have looks contrary to the "norm" or to make others feel bad, so avoid or modify that page if that's something you're teaching your kids.

We have a large collection of Boynton books and love nearly all of them. I got this one for my nearly 2 year old for Christmas and now it's one of his favorites (and mine too). It is all around excellent. I can actually say I enjoy reading it, it makes me happy. I have books that he reaches for that I don't enjoy reading as much (The Belly Button book being one of them), but this one I gladly read over and over. The book is a cute opposites book. The book rhymes perfectly and has very good flow. It like has it's own tempo that makes it rhythmic to read. The pictures are adorable. My son is very into dinosaurs right now and LOVES the fun dino pictures. This book is absolutely perfect!

I purchased this book as a gift for a dinosaur themed baby shower. There is never any doubt about buying a Sandra Boynton book, it is guaranteed to be a hit! The whimsical expressions and colorful drawings quickly draw the eye, but it is the cadence and rhythm of Boynton's stories that delight both parent and child!

Short, sweet, and a treat to the kids. They like the brief words and pace of the pages as much as I do. Now writing a book about distant family relatives story would be a near universal need. Maybe I'll copy her cute format. Or maybe I'll let her do it right.

An adorable tale of dinosaurs for twin boys....they love hearing this story already at their tender age of just under a year old. It will be a hit in no time at all....

16 mo old daughter loves this book about dinosaurs and opposites. We read it almost every night before bed. All the Boynton board books are great!

I HAVE GIVEN THIS BOOK AS A GIFT AT LEAST THREE TIMES. I LOVE HER BOOKS SO MUCH.

Corners were a little worn but a cute book.
