Hadrian's Wall (English Heritage Guidebooks)

Synopsis

A new edition of perhaps the best and most popular souvenir guide to Hadrian's Wall, including the most recent archaeological discoveries. Full of superb colour photographs, reconstruction drawings, maps and plans, this guide introduces the visitor to the Wall, with a concise history of its construction, purpose, the army that manned it, the local population, its fate after the Romans left and its legacy, along with details on archaeological excavations and finds.
