Mahatma Gandhi Do you ever wonder why you are living the kind of life you are currently living? Do you ever consider why it might be that your life feels somewhat unfulfilled, while it seems like others are living full, meaningful, and purposeful lives? While you could have many explanations and justifications as to why you have not attained much in life, the truth lies in your beliefs. You are whoever you are and you are living a certain kind of life solely because of the beliefs you nurture. Nurture the right, healthy, positive beliefs and you will enjoy an abundant, happy, and successful life. Nurture the wrong beliefs - ones that make you feel unconfident, limited, and unhappy - and you will manifest nothing but failure, and an unfulfilled life.

| What if you could achieve the truest and most genuine sense of happiness and fulfillment? What if you could see yourself in a whole new light with outstanding self-confidence, and achieve every single goal you set for yourself? What if you could enrich and succeed in every aspect of your life: health, relationships, happiness, and business? What if you could completely reinvent yourself, and become unstoppable in every single way possible: have outstanding self-belief, unlock your true hidden potential, and create ideas that could transform the world? What if you could become the absolute best possible version of yourself?

| This book is filled with the proper information, motivation, and guidance that will not only allow you, but push you towards completely changing your life for the better. Not only this, but this book will aid you in realizing your full, unlimited potential, which will allow you to unleash your inner-greatness, and create the life of your dreams. But first, in order to accomplish this, you must implement what it teaches into every aspect of your life. From there, your mind will change, you will change, and your world will change. The power of your mind is limitless; utilize it, and "create a life beyond worth living."

I loved this book, the author gets right to the point and give you great advice to take action to become a better believer in yourself. I will recommend this book to anyone who needs stronger belief in what you are trying to accomplish in life.

Insightful, motivational and uplifting. A thought provoking, interesting read for anyone looking for growth and improvement in their own life.

Loved it!! Read it you will too!!

An impactful, and mind-altering read. Truly learned a lot. Cant wait for more from this author!!!

I absolutely love this book so far! Definitely recommend this book to anyone. Much more detailed than the first book and really great information to keep in mind.take it seriously and your life can truly change for the better !

This book proves that reading truly is the best form of therapy. It has taught me that my biggest limitation is myself. Through self-belief, I've learned I could achieve anything my head aims for. Thank you Sim Pol for this great read!

I rarely give 5 Stars but this book was so well thought out and written that 5 Stars came as a no brainer. Not only does the author show the results of negative thinking but by golly he explains how to stop it, he also shows how to become more positive. This book is easy to understand and you will be a different person if you incorporate the actions included in this book. Like everything else that is worthwhile in life, you have to work for the results, and you will get results. I am keeping this book in my Kindle library to read again when I find negativity creeping back into my life.

A great inspiring book that truly teaches you to unleash your full potential. Since i have read it, my perception on what it takes to be successful has completely changed. a must read.
