Synopsis

1471 A.D. - Ten years after the Battle of Towton, Sir Kenton le Bec (THE LION OF THE NORTH) serves Warwick, "The Kingmaker", as the man's attack dog. There is no fiercer knight in Warwick's arsenal than Kenton le Bec, a powerful and cunning fighter. Kenton has been tasked with securing Babylon Castle, a fortress that secures a road between Lancashire and Yorkshire. It is a strategic castle and currently in the hands of Edward's forces. When Kenton and his army move in, all of that changes. Yet things are not always clear-cut....Lady Nicola Aubrey-Thorne is the widow of a great Edwardian supporter. When Kenton conquers her home of Babylon Castle, she offers him nothing but resistance and hatred. Kenton sees a beautiful, spoiled woman who fights him on every turn, yet the spark of attraction is there. It has been since the beginning. As Kenton comes to learn the darker secrets of Babylon, he comes to understand Lady Thorne and her sorrows. And his attraction towards her grows beyond his control. Join Kenton and Nicola in a world of opposing loyalties yet united attraction. Their lives become irrevocably intertwined even if their loyalties to the men who would be king differ. The passion they feel for one another, and the love, is something few people ever experience. It is a complicated and complex situation, one where difficult decisions must be made if Kenton and Nicola are to remain together. When Kenton is captured by enemy soldiers, Nicola must do all she can to save the man who she once considered her enemy. Will she be too late? NOTE: shows a short page count in pre-order - be advised that this is a full length novel and NOT a short read.

Customer Reviews

I truly read this book in a day. That is the "trouble" with Le Veque book--you can hardly put them down. This is a story about two people who start out as enemies. As they come to really know one another attraction turns into love. But Kenton Le Bec is the classic career soldier who keeps his feelings buttoned up. The widow Nicola has been mentally and physically abused by her husband and has not known the love of a man. But these two damaged people grow to care for each other in a difficult time in English history. However there are the lighter times as Nicola's three little sons teach Kenton how to interact with rambunctious children. Throw into this mix misunderstanding and betrayal and guilt and the way to save our hero looks impossible. This is one of the things the author excels at--creating a situation that seems impossible to overcome--but she does. She also excels at writing about a beautiful, touching love. This book presents a love that not even the boundaries of time and death can keep apart. Kathryn Le Veque has written another timeless romance.

Just finished this book and again Kathryn had me in tears at the end. I have read all of her books and can't wait for her next one. Every one of them are connected to all the different families in her earlier ones and it is so great to read about Sons and Grandsons of earlier Characters in her books. Also her research of the historical events she writes her stories around are great and with heartwarming love stories. She is absolutely one of the best writers of Medieval History , with only one or two others and she is friends with them. I am looking forward to her next book , which I have pre-ordered already. I hope she will write a sequel to Walls of Babylon to find out about Nicola and Kenton in the future , if she was pregnant and about Her Boys , Tab ,Tiernan and Teague . If you love Medieval History then her books are an absolute Joy in reading.

I really enjoyed this story of Kenton and Nicola's story. Kenton is the classic career soldier who keeps his feelings inside. Nicola is widow who has never known love, especially the love of a good man. She has suffered from abuse both physically and mentally by her husband. Kenton and Nicola are two damaged souls who overcome their own demons and grow to care for each other in a difficult time in English history. The romance starts as the two suffer from misunderstandings, betrayal and then forgiveness with an eternal love for the ages. I loved Nicola's three kids they made the book for me with their interactions with Kenton. Kathryn L Veque knows how to write a true love story and how people can overcome all obstacles that seem impossible to reach their happy ever after. My only complaint is the book could be longer. I love her EPIC books! Kathryn Le Veque's writing is the best I've read and I can't wait for the next book! 5 Stars!!!

OMG "HOW COULD SHE DO THAT! "That was what my head was saying half way through this book. Great story. So much tension, excitement starting from the first page. It doesn't take long to read a book like this one because you can't put it down. Great characters so well described. One interesting thing was the woman in the closet was so similar to the man in the closet in "The Serpent". I wish we could find out more about how that part of the story progressed with the grandson. Those last chapters were so good. I could have done without the present time prologue and the epilogue. I am not a fan of time travel and when I first started reading this book and saw present day I thought " OH NO", it isn't it. I looked it up just to make sure it really isn't a time travel story. I am so glad I read past the prologue. Just a terrific story that I would highly recommend. This is my favorite author and I quit counting how many of her books I have read after #75. That's a lot of books and I still have other authors that are great also.

I was expecting more of a time traveling story, but it was more of another wonderful medieval story that Kathryn Le Veque can write so perfectly, making her stories so interesting and beloved. I love the fact that her books are true facts with lots of action and fantasy to make a woman's heart daydream after she's done reading the story. I've read about le Bec in other stories, different eras but all sticking to the same families, ( my favorite houses ... de Wolfe, de Lohr), le Bec, de Russe, de Lara, St. Never and so many more. In this story all that is missing is how they died, how many children they had and what happened to the three boys Lady Le Bec already had. I will keep on reading about the house of Le Bec and maybe I'll find out. Again, Kathryn Le Veque has me losing sleep because I can't put a book down.

4.5 Stars - I enjoyed the story of Kenton Le Bec and Nicola Aubrey-Thorne. It was enthralling! He is a powerful knight for Warwick who was sent to lay siege to Babylon Castle and there he encounters the beautiful and willful widow, Lady Thorne. She also has three rambunctious children ages six and under. She fights Kenton every chance she gets. This frustrates the powerful knight. With such opposing loyalties - Kenton fights for King Henry and Lady Nicola fights in her own way for Edward, these two have quite the journey. I loved the action and I loved having Matthew Wellsbourne and Gaston de Russe in this story. They were much younger here. There is intrigue, questionable loyalties, betrayal, forgiveness, tenderness and love. The only thing I would have liked to have seen was a classic Le Veque Epilogue. I prefer those. This book is an enjoyable read. I look forward to the next one.
